

Eta Kappas Install New Officers at Dinner Meet

In an impressive candlelight ceremony held in the fireside room of the Club Alondra, the Eta Kappa chapter of the Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority installed the officers for the coming year. Mrs. Winona Jackson, regional director was in charge. Installed were Mrs. Charles Leichtweis, president; Mrs. Kenneth McVey, vice president; Mrs. Carlos Espinosa, recording secretary; Mrs. Louis Verne, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Joseph Trujillo, treasurer; and Mrs. Charles Pfeffer, parliamentarian. Two pledges received their jewel pins, Mmes. Trujillo and Dorothy Marquez.

A dinner meeting was held. The Aloha theme was carried out with a centerpiece of a sail boat surrounded by tropical flowers. Corsages for the members were in the form of leis in colors of blue and gold. Place cards were miniature luggage pieces.

Mrs. Charles Pfeffer, outgoing president, was given a past president's pin. The recent "Olden Fashion Daze and Korny Kapers" production, a ways and means project for the year, netted a profit of more than $150.

"Korney Kapers," the variety show given by members and their husbands and directed by Mrs. Kenneth McVey, has been requested by other groups in Torrance.

A 'Something' New in Meat

A spectacular new approach in meat merchandising is announced by Jim Dandy Markets. Beginning June 20, Jim Dandy will pack their exclusive written "bond" in every package of meat sold by them, never before tried in the Southland area. The "bond" is claimed to be backed by the strongest guarantee ever made. Here is how it works. Competent and qualified meat buyers systematically comb the wholesale meat packing plants and carefully select only the finest U.S.D.A. graded choice or better meats.

In the case of beef, the chosen product is all of the highest quality steer beef. The products are then properly aged to the exact length of time to give it the most mouth-watering tenderness and flavor possible. The meats are then carefully cut to exactness and properly trimmed to produce the finest meat available anywhere. When the Jim Dandy inspectors are certain that shoppers will receive the most tender and flavorful meat available, it is then "bonded". A warranty, exclusive with Jim Dandy, is wrapped in every single package of meat. This bond assures you of complete satisfaction—or Jim Dandy will cheerfully refund every single penny spent, no questions asked. Another outstanding feature is that Jim Dandy bonded meats cost no more than ordinary meat.

A SUCCESSFUL YEAR... was acclaimed for the Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary last Tuesday when Mrs. John Beman, president, handed a check for $5500 to Henry Creeger, president of the hospital board of directors. This check brought the total auxiliary contributions to $33,000 for the past six years of the auxiliary's existence.
